ADDITIONAL TERMS FOR CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3664(f)(2), in consideration of the financial resources and other assets of the defendant, including whether any of these assets are jointly controlled; projected earnings and other income of the defendant; and any financial obligations of the defendant; including obligations to dependents, you shall pay restitution in the manner and according to the schedule that follows:

You shall commence monthly installment payments in an amount equal to 15 percent of your gross income, payable on the 5th of each month, upon release from prison. The factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. 3664(f)(2) were considered in formulating the payment schedule.

You shall make restitution payments by certified check, bank check, money order, wire transfer, credit card or cash. Checks and money orders shall be made payable to the "SDNY Clerk of Court," with the payments being mailed or hand delivered to: United States Courthouse, Attention: Cashier, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York 10007, as required by 18 U.S.C. 3611. Through the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program (BOP Policy Statement 5380-08), the BOP may establish a payment plan by evaluating your six-month deposit history and subtracting an amount determined by the BOP to be used to maintain contact with family and friends. The remaining balance may be used to determine a repayment schedule. BOP staff shall help you develop a financial plan and shall monitor the inmate's progress in meeting your restitution obligation.

You shall pay interest on any restitution amount of more than $2,500, unless restitution is paid in full before the 15th day after the date of the judgment, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. 3612(f)(1).

Your liability to pay restitution shall terminate on the date that is the later of 20 years from the entry of judgment or 20 years after the defendant's release from imprisonment, as provided in 18 U.S.C. 3613(b). Subject to the time limitations in the preceding sentence, in the event of your death, your estate will be held responsible for any unpaid balance of the restitution amount, and any lien filed, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3613(c), shall continue until the estate receives a written release of that liability.
